this book stems from the principle that each individual on our planet is of the highest value arguing that each person should be recognized according to what dignity and what values they bear it shows that the phenomenon of values is not what people want but what people should want highlighting that europe and america have advanced most on this path as such the book pays special attention to european and euro atlantic values it describes how the value system which society uses as a guide has dictated the usual norms of behavior of a large number of people these values are not equally acceptable to all and some even violate them but society has developed formal laws and informal customs institutions to uphold them the issues discussed in this book about the modern economy and values will be interesting for all people who think about the fate of their country and humanity regardless of their nationality religious confession race profession age or worldview
